Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL HAVE HEARD OF HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtuous are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Conrt of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SCHOOLS OF BEDFORD COUNTY.

Educational Progress in the County.

A careful examination of the facts given in the following report, will show that the common schools of our county have, in many respects, made considerable progress during the past year. This will be particularly noticeable in the number and kind of houses built, in the care exercised in the selection of sites for the same; number of schools furnished with apparatus; increase of salary paid to teachers; number of teachers who attended county and district institutes; better qualification of teachers and increase of interest on the part of the public. The system is a power that is slowly but surely overcoming its enemies, here as well as elsewhere. Public opinion is fast becoming educated to the fact that on the success of these schools depend the strength and glory of our commonwealth. It is true that here and there we still find a croaker who is "making a hoarse noise" because "the light is breaking," but the great majority of our people are warmly attached to the schools and are giving freely and liberally of their monies toward their support.

Graded Schools.

Little change has been made in these; Bedford and Woodbury have added two additional teachers, and Rainsburg has separated her pupils into two classes according to age and progress. There are now four graded schools, employing thirteen teachers. Several other districts are preparing to grade one or more of their schools during the coming year. Each year more fully shows the advantages these schools afford their pupils, and we would again urge their speedy adoption at Pleasantville, St. Clairsville, Saxton and Stonerstown.

Houses and Grounds.

Twelve new houses—eight more than last year—were built. One in Bedford; one in Colerain; two in Cumberland valley; one in Harrison; one in Hopewell; one in Monroe; one in St. Clair; three in Southampton and one in Middle Woodbury. In nearly every instance, particular attention was paid to "location" in building the above houses. Directors availing themselves of the power given them by the late supplement to the school law, procured eligible sites with a sufficient amount of grounds, and had the same properly deeded to the respective boards. This plain duty has been greatly neglected heretofore. The houses built in Bedford, Cumberland Valley, Harrison and Middle Woodbury deserve special notice. They have been built with a view to the future, as well as to the present wants of the districts and are in respect to size and general arrangement among the best in the county. The Woodbury house is a model. The spirit manifested by the boards of Cumberland valley and Southampton is especially commendable. They built five new houses during the past year; have sold out five more to be erected during the present summer, and are taking initiatory steps toward replacing all the "old log" with good houses. While we speak well of these, we cannot but condemn the carelessness and short-sighted policy shown in building the house in Colerain. The whole building together with the furniture is a total failure. Think of it, doors, planed on the one side, rough on the other; benches and desks, that fall to pieces after three week's using, and windows fastened, so that they cannot be lowered. The directors should never have taken the job off the builder's hands.

In Napier, Schellsburg, Monroe and Union, arrangements have been made to build new houses during the coming year. We look for some model buildings here. Thus we see that while a few townships are still willing to continue to occupy miserable log houses, in the majority—where new houses are needed—as may be seen by referring to "statistical report," they are making the proper effort to improve.

Furniture and Apparatus.

With new houses comes improved furniture. Two of the rooms in the graded schools of Bedford, together with all the new houses, save one, were supplied with good furniture. That put into the second grammar school, Bedford, is the best in the county. One hundred and twelve schools were supplied with Peirce's Magnetic Globes at a cost of about $18,00. These were purchased for the schools of Bedford, Broad Top, Coaldale, Londonderry, Liberty, Harrison, Napier, Middle Woodbury, Monroe, Southampton, St. Clair, Saxton, South Woodbury and West Providence. Sixty schools were supplied with primary charts. There are now only six schools in the county wholly without apparatus, and these are the most backward schools we have. One hundred and fifty-two have outline Maps; one hundred and fifteen, globes, charts and maps, and about one hundred and ninety have black-board surface. There are, however, only thirteen that are well supplied with apparatus. The directors have manifested a willingness, far beyond that heretofore exhibited, to supply the schools with apparatus.

Qualifications and salaries of Teachers.

There has been a change in the average qualification of teachers. In point of scholarship, the teachers are steadily improving. Last year the average grade of certificates was 2.52. This year, although eighty per cent of the applicants were examined in two additional branches—United States History and School Economy, and, although the examinations were fully as rigid as those of last year, the average grade is 2.29. One year ago, only one teacher in the county came up to the requirements of the professional certificates; now eight are teaching, who passed the requisite examination, and obtained professional certificates, and quite a number more are preparing to receive the honor. Wages are advancing. The reports from a few townships will show this. Last year the average wages in Liberty were, for Males, $29.83; Females, $26.50. This year, average for Males, $33.66; Females, $30.00. Bedford township, average, last year, for Males, $29.83; Females, $25.70. This year, the average wages for Males, $32.50; Females, 31.00. Southampton, average wages, for Males, last year, $24.89; Females, 24.85. This year, average for Males, $2.700; Females, $29.16. Cumberland Valley, average wages for Males last year, $25; Females, $21.00. This year the average wages for Males, were $35.00; Females, $35.25. The same marked change might be shown in the majority of the townships of the county. In some, the average may fall below that of one or two years ago, but this will be owing to the fact that directors adopted the wise plan in such townships, of paying teachers according to their qualifications or grade of certificate. The general tendency is to pay teachers more liberally for their services.

Little change was made in the methods of instruction; two branches—reading and penmanship—were, however, more efficiently taught, than last year, and History was taught for the first time in thirty of our schools. Few directors visit the schools regularly. Several townships had district superintendents who discharged their duties well.

Out of the whole number of teachers employed, one hundred and eighteen had attended a Normal School, and one hundred and fifty-six—an increase of twenty-five over last year—had studied some work on teaching. One hundred and thirty-six males and fifty-eight females were employed; seven—five males and two females—having made a mistake in their choice of occupation, proved total failures and were dismissed.

Educational Work done by the Superintendent.

Twenty-eight public and twelve private examinations were held.—Eighty-four directors and one hundred and sixty-seven citizens were present at the public examinations. I recall with pleasure the examinations in Harrison, Liberty, Middle Woodbury and South Woodbury, at each of which the citizens manifested a lively interest in the work and awaited with great patience the result of the day's labors. One hundred and sixty-three provisional and eight professional certificates were issued at the public and thirty-two provisional certificates at the private examinations.—Eighteen applicants were rejected, and six certificates from other counties were by request from boards of directors, endorsed. We found after the public examinations were over that at least thirty schools-must remain closed, for we had adhered strictly to the published notice for examinations, viz: "that those only need apply who are prepared to stand an examination in History and Methods of Instruction." We had followed the "letter" of the law, but found it left us greatly in want; hence, after receiving authority from the "powers that be," we examined a limited number of teachers, coming up to the requirements of one year ago. Still we found it necessary to hold private examinations in different parts of the County, as in several instances, the directors had "taken the bit into their own mouths" and employed teachers, not examined, with the understanding that "if they failed when the Supt. came 'round they would receive no pay." Some did fail. Thus it was that so many were examined privately. It was a work of necessity. "The new Supplement" made the supply of teachers exceedingly short and all lawful means had to be resorted to in order to fill the schools. Not all were filled. We had thirty-three applicants less than last year.—The new law is a good one and in a year or two more we will be ready to meet it fully. The examinations continued until late in the fall, thus very materially interfearing with the visiting of Schools already open. Two hundred and four schools were visited at an average length of 1.54 to each visit. I attended several district and two County institutes, eleven educational meetings and visited twenty-four schools in Philadelphia for information. No time was lost during the term of the public Schools. The County Institute—the first held here for three years—was a success. Ninety-four Teachers were present at its sessions and all manifested considerable interest. The Institute was held in November. At its close, the teachers went to their respective fields of labor and began organizing district institutes. One year ago ten teachers attended a township institute; last winter the number was increased to fifty-one. District institutes did good work whenever they were opened, save in Middle Woodbury. We state facts, though we may not flatter some of our teachers.

Educational Work done by other Agencies.

Thirty-three private Schools were open during the year. Twelve hundred and forty pupils attended these, employing forty-one teachers, at a cost of five thousand eight hundred and thirty-five dollars. As these schools were, with a few exceptions, conducted by our ablest teachers, they did good work. We have few private schools open during the term of the public schools, hence, we do not feel that spirit of antogonism between the two, prevalent in some counties. All work together in perfect harmony for the common good.

Our County Normal School is still liberally patronized and supplies in a measure the growing want of a higher institution of learning. One hundred and forty students attended, eighty-five of whom taught during the year. The school was under my direct superintendence, assisted by Prof. R. A. McClure of Chambersburg, J. M. Reynolds and Miss F. M. Haly of the Millersville Normal School, and Miss Maggie McCleary of Bedford. The Rainsburg Academy, under the charge of Prof. J. W. Hughes; the school at Woodbury, taught by J. G. Kreichbaum and W. C. Smith, and the School at New Paris, conducted by J. A. Songster, all did good work in preparing teachers. "The press is free." We need but ask and the editors give us space for any educational items.

Obstacles in the way of Improvements.

We have noticed a number of features in our schools that show advancement, but we have yet to look at some of the obstacles in the way of progress. Among these, are irregular attendance; want of thorough classification; want of public interest; shortness of school term; frequent change of teachers; employment of incompetent teachers; neglect on the part of many boards of directors to pay teachers in proportion to their qualification, and heavy rate of of taxation. The remedy for the first three evils lies almost entirely in the hands of the teacher. Our skilful teachers readily overcome these, and unless the first has become chronic, the teacher who understands how to use the incentives at his command, will not fail to effect a cure. We want more efficient teachers. It has been said that "any one may teach the highest departments; but to teach well the elements requires a master," and that, "the merit of conveying easily to others true and simple notions, is much greater than is commonly supposed; for experience proves how rarely this is to be met with." We know the truth of the above. Look at the record in our county and then judge from the nature of things how many "masters" we have. Last year, of the whole number employed, fifty-nine had had no experience and seventy had taught less than one year. This year we employ-ployed forty-five raw recruits and seventy-two who had not seen one year's service. Each year about 50 per cent of our teachers seek employment in some other occupation. Their places are filled by young men and women who labor with us for a short time, many of them zealously, with a determination to succeed, and then, when they are prepared to teach, quit the profession. Now why this constant change? Simply because the term is too short and wages not sufficient to offer an inducement to keep men in the profession. The same change will go on until we increase the length of the school term and pay more liberally. And while this change goes on; while we employ teachers who will only teach until something better offers, we need not look for that perfection of our educational system intended by the fathers of the same. We, therefore, again suggest that one of the means, calculated to promote improvement, is, more aid from the state. A more equal distribution of the school tax of the State would greatly lessen our burdens and aid us to increase our term. This would check the draft annually made on our most competent teachers and help us to build up a stronger profession. We again ask the respectful attention of the legislature through the school department to a change in the number of school Directors in each district. Experience shows how difficult it is in our rural districts, to have a quorum at any stated meeting. The full board rarely meets, meetings are called and business postponed again and again for want of a sufficient number of Directors present. They receive no pay and many have little or no interest in the work. There can be but little doubt, that three members in each board, a president, secretary and treasurer, paid for their services, would do the work much more efficiently. Still we will work on, believing that in the end we must succeed. We want more earnest heart work. We believe in labor as a blessing and not as a curse, and we know that sooner or later all will see that intelligence only fits men the better to fulfil the duties of life. Thus far too much attention has been paid" to the leaves of the human flower; the leaf memory has received much care, while upon judgment and reason growing in the region of thought much less care has been bestowed, and those still more fragrant, springing from the very heart of of the blossom and in which are the seeds of life, have been too often almost wholly neglected." The heart needs more culture. To this the true teacher will ever turn his thought and attention, remembering, that he is training, not for life only but for eternity. H. W. FISHER, Co. Sup't.

CORRY O'LANUS' EPISTLE.

Things at Washington--Experience with the Investigation Committee--A Call on the Candidates--Organization of the Grant and Colfax Club.

Being in Brooklyn again, and able to deliver my correspondence without mail or telegraphic assistance, I can write to you again.

I was in Washington last week; Butler had his eye upon me, and anything I might have written to you or Mrs. O'Lanus would have been seized before it left Washington and incorporated in the documentary evidence of the Impeachment Investigation Committee, and goodness knows what the consequences might have been,

So I didn't write.

Butler went around to all the banks in Washington to see how much money I had on deposit.

He was very much disgusted at the result. So was I—though it was just what I expected.

I hadn't money enough to buy a New York Assemblyman, let alone a Senator of the United States.

But one of my telegraphic dispatches had been seized, which brought me under suspicion.

Brevity is the soul of economy in telegraphing, so I had condensed my message to the following:

To Titus O'Blique, Brooklyn:

WASHINGTON, May 20.

B. laid out, Anthony caved, P. O. all right. C. O' L.

I was subpœnaed before the Managers to explain this nefarious dispatch, which was clear and conclusive evidence of corruption as Butler read it.

"B," he said meant laid out on impeachment. "Anthony caved," meant the Senator from Rhode Island. "P," stood for Pomeroy, the "O," he couldn't see through.

As an American citizen with inalienable rights I at first refused indignantly to explain this strictly private dispatch; but when Butler ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to look me up in Vinnie Ream's studio with the bust of Lincoln, my courage failed me and I deciphered the dispatch which referred to my personal prospects for Postmaster of Brooklyn; Boggs' was laid out, Anthony Campbell had given up and gone home, and that I was all right for the Postoffice.

So I thought, but like the Impeachers, I was disappointed.

Butler was not satisfied with this explanation and threatened to send for Boggs, to see if he couldn't pump a contradiction out of him.

It wouldn't have been the first time that Boggs has rode into publicity on a pump.

After this narrow escape I curbed my epistolatory zeal, and avoided the Postoffice and telegraph while I remained in Washington.

Since Woolley has been provided with free lodgings in the Capitol, several families who complain of high rents have offered their services to the Managers as contumacious witnesses, but as there wouldn't be apartments enough in the Capitol to accommodate them without turning Congress out of doors, the offers have been declined.

Butler thinks witnesses without capital are not worth lodging in the Capitol. But a witness worth twenty thousand dollars is a chance of getting at the money.

I called on Grant and congratulated him on his nomination, and assured him of the support of the Weeksville Grant Club, which I intended to join as soon I got home.

In that charmingly terse and noncommittal way he responded: "Marshall Brown's pups have got their eyes open!"

After this explicit response there can be no doubt that the devotion of the W. G. C. will be recognized when Grant is President.

I then called on Colfax and assured him that he had been the choice of Weeksville from the start, that the resolutions endorsing Fenton were merely complimentary, out of gratitude for the pardon of a relative of the Secretary of the club, who having no funds of his own at the bank, had used the name of a gentleman who had, on a check for a thousand dollars, for which the prejudiced criminal authorities had sent him to Sing Sing.

I also reminded Schuyler that we were brother typos. He was a printer in his early life, and you no doubt remember with gratitude how I came to your assistance at that time of the printer's strike, and set up a portion of my epistle.

I meant to have followed it up and become a regular printer, but when Mrs. O'Lanus heard that you were employing young ladies to set type, she objected.

She said it wasn't proper for a married man to be setting up with the girls.

As Grant has so elegantly expressed it, I said, "Let us have peace," and dropped the case for the pen which is mightier than the shooting-stick.

Colfax and I were old friends after this introduction. I told him that his rulings in the chair had always elicited my warmest admiration, and as Ben. Wade had been found wanting, no fitter man for promotion could have been selected, and that I had the fullest conviction that he would go up in November next with the entire ticket.

Colfax was very affable, but he didn't ask me to take anything. He is doing the temperance, so that the Chicago ticket, like the platform, is half and half.

Having become disgusted with the ingratitude of Democracy and despairing of the Postoffice under the present administration, I find consolation in the Chicago platform, which comprehends everything in general and nothing in particular, and taken in connection with Grant's letter of acceptance holds out a political prospect on which the imagination can exercise in perfect freedom, without being cramped by defined dogmas about the national credit, negro suffrage or whatever.

The Weeksville Grant and Colfax Club, which lacked one of a sufficiency of members to fill the necessary offices of President, Secretary, Treasurer and Sergeant-at-Arms, received me with rejoicing, and on my agreement to pay the expenses of the room, we held a meeting.

An election for officers was held which resulted as follows:

President—Corry O'Lanus.
Secretary—Licinius O'Tard.
Treasurer—Titus O'Blique.
Sergeant-at-Arms—Caius Marcus Mulligan.

Resolutions, endorsing Grant and Colfax and pledging our undivided support to the Chicago platform, which O'Blique had cut out of a newspaper, were unanimously adopted.

Mr. O'Tard moved that a committee be appointed to draft a constitution and by laws.

Mr. Mulligan, who is an original Radical, opposed the motion. The Constitution, he said, was a copperhead contrivance, and was played out.

Mr. O'Tard said the gentleman was laboring under misapprehension. The motion had no reference to the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Mulligan objected to the word: constitution was not to be found in the Chicago platform, or any other truly loyal document.

Mr. O'Blique raised a point of order and as a question of privilege called for the previous question and demanded the ayes and noes.

Mr. O'Tard asked the gentleman if he would give way for an explanation?

Mr. Mulligan wanted to know if an explanation was admissible under Congressional practice?

The Chair ruled that when a privileged question became a point of order, and a member had the floor on the previous question, the amendment not having been seconded, could not take precedence of a motion for a division unless five members rose and demanded it, and as there were only four members now present, it was obviously out of order, and the Chair so ruled.

Mr. Mulligan appealed from the decision of the Chair, and if nobody would second the motion he would second it himself and was not going to be put down.

The chair called the gentleman to order.

Mr. Mulligan—"What kind of order do you propose to do business in?"

The Chair—"We propose to be governed by the rules of Jefferson's Manual."

Mr. Mulligan—"I'd like to know if Jefferson or any other Democrat is going to lay down rules for a Republican Club. We ain't going to have any copperhead authorities here."

The Chair (severely)—Mr. Mulligan, if you repeat those language I shall commit you for contempt of court. Thomas Jefferson was one of the Fathers of the Republic."

Mr. O'Blique—"The Chair is out of order. Jefferson's family relations have nothing to do with the subject before the house."

Mr. O'Tard wished to know whether the question before the house was debatable, because if it wasn't, he insisted on being heard before it was decided.

Mr. Mulligan wanted to know if the gentleman was going to talk all night.

Mr. O'Tard said it was none of Mr. Mulligan's business; if he felt dry he could go out and take a drink.

Mr. Mulligan wished the gentleman to understand that he paid for his liquor.

Mr. O'Tard said possibly he did, when he couldn't get any one else to pay for it.

The Chair—"Gentleman, as our eloquent leader observes, 'Let us have peace,' and proceed to vote on the main question which the Secretary will now please to read."

The Secretary read the question, put in Congressional shape.

Resolved, That the Weeksville Grant and Colfax Club do now adjourn to take a drink.. Carried unanimously.

The Club intends to conduct the campaign with energy.

The nominations of Grant and Colfax have been received with the utmost enthusiasm throughout the country, from Weeksville to Oregon, but owing to the backwardness of the season the enthusiasm has not blossomed out as yet.

Yours for Grant, Glory and the Postoffice, CORRY O'LANUS.

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The representatives of the Democrats of the several election districts of this county, assembled at the Court House, in this place, on Monday last, and transacted the business entrusted to them with fidelity to their constituents and in perfect harmony. The nominations for county officers are excellent, and will be endorsed at the polls by an overwhelming majority. The choice of the Convention for Additional Law Judge and Member of the Legislature, fell upon worthy gentlemen, who, if nominated and elected, will fill those offices with credit to themselves and honor to those by whose suffrages they will be chosen. As to the choice of the Convention for Congress, our modesty forbids us to speak. We return our thanks for the unsolicited honor conferred upon us, and especially will we always hold in kindly remembrance the friends who thought it well to propose and urge our nomination. Whatever betide, we shall do "our level best" for the ticket, believing most sincerely that the success of the Democracy in the coming contest, is of far greater importance than the advancement of any individual. And now we call upon the Democrats throughout the county to organize. Form clubs and meet together in council. There never was a more auspicious time than the present, for successful work on the part of the Democracy. See that your voters are properly registered. See that foreign-born citizens have their naturalization papers. See that Democratic documents are distributed among the people. Men of the Democracy! In this life and death struggle between civil liberty and military despotism, will you, can you, be lukewarm, or idle? Do you not see the strides the party in power is making, day by day, toward centralized absolutism? Do you not perceive and understand the infamous purpose of that party in placing the ballot in the hands of 600,000 half savage negroes to be driven to the polls at the point of the bayonet? Hereafter, if Grant should be elected, the balance of power in the government, is to be in the hands of the African! Will you not strain every nerve, will you not work day and night, will you not swear by your altars and your fires, to avert the awful danger that hangs like a thunder-cloud above your devoted country? Yes! we hear you answer, Yes! we will!

Forward, for the Right!

THE BALANCE OF POWER.

The Chicago Platform, endorsed by Gen. Grant, declares that Negro Suffrage must be maintained in the Southern States, and upon this doctrine the Radicals ask the people to support Grant for President. Now the States which have been "reconstructed" upon the Congressional plan, contain upwards of 600,000 Negro voters, more than enough to give the balance of power in the government, to these unlettered and semi-barbarous Africans.

Mr. Green Goslin, who was born a "Republican," and therefore, thinks it his duty to vote the Radical ticket, even though he knows that ticket to be pledged to the enforcement of Negro Suffrage upon the South, says, "Oh! I am opposed to Negro voting, but it doesn't matter so long as they vote only in the South."

The silly goose! As if the voters of Pennsylvania and those of the rest of the States, did not all vote together on the first Tuesday in November, for President of the United States, and as if the 600,000 Negro votes did not count as many on that day, as if they were cast in Pennsylvania, instead of Louisana, Alabama and the rest of the Africanized states! The Negro who votes for Grant for President, in Alabama, kills the vote of the white man in Pennsylvania who votes for Grant's opponent. Thus does Negro Suffrage affect Pennsylvania. The old Keystone may declare by her 600,000 white votes that this or that candidate shall be the next President; but the 600,000 blacks of the South, can say: No! not your choice, but ours, shall be the occupant of the Presidential chair. The balance of power, is, truly, in the hands of the enfranchised blacks. It was placed there by the present infamous Radical Congress and it is to be kept there by Gen. Grant, if the people, by electing him, endorse the Chicago Platform. This is "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

REPUDIATION.

A great deal is said about repudiating the Federal debt. Some people are very nervous upon this subject. Did it ever occur to such people that 600,000 blacks will vote for members of Congress, at the next election?—And are those who profess to be in so great trepidation about the safety of the "nation's honor," such numbskulls, that they cannot see that these 600,000 blacks have not a single rusty nickel at stake in this matter? Nay, is it not their interest to favor repudiation, in order to relieve themselves of taxes which they already complain of as oppressive? If there be danger of repudiation in any quarter, it is in the Negro vote. Look out, ye would-be saviors of the nation's honor; the "nation's wards" are becoming restive, and when the Hon. Sam. Gumbo and the Hon. Jim Bones get to Congress, there will be a quaking among the bond-holders. The hoe-holders are coming. 'Rah for Col. and Grantfax!

"NO POLICY."

Useless Grant says, in his "letter of acceptance," that he will have "no policy," &c. He might as well have said that when he becomes master of the Ship of State, the good old barque will have neither rudder nor compass. A pilot without a chart, drifted about by the shifting winds of popular opinion, now thrown upon the lee-shore of faction, now drawn into the whirlpool of party, in constant peril from the floating ice-bergs of the North, or the fierce gales that blow from the South; such, by his own confession, would be U. S. Grant at the "helm of State." Think of it! A President without a policy! Shades of Jefferson and Jackson, defend us from such an infliction! Ye dead patriots, whose policies are canonized in the hearts of the people, look down from your celestial abode and inspire the popular mind with a true sense of the public danger in the elevation of a man to the Presidency, who declares he will have "no policy."

THE Inquirer calls the attention of the Democracy to the fact that Bonner is training Dexter for a run, and advises the 4th of July convention to "trot out" that famous animal. If Dexter were run against Grant, the latter would have a sensible animal to "talk horse" to, much more so than the mule in whose ears he whispered as he rode him around the circus ring. "Trot out" Hiram, the mule and the monkey, and we'll bring out an "unknown" that will "distance" the whole party. We have a "slate farm" to wager on that.

ON the 6th inst., the Montgomery, Ala., Advertiser contained the following:

"We are requested by the soldiers on duty at this place to state that at the nigger carpet-bag, and scalawag meeting, held at the capitol grounds on Saturday night, the soldiers gave three groans for Grant, three cheers for McClellan, and three cheers for Andrew Jehnson. They were given by the soldiers with a hearty good will, and rolled from the capitol to the Artesian basin. We are also requested by these soldiers to state that any assertion contrary to this is a base falsehood. The soldiers say they are white men, and have no love for carpet-baggers and scalawags."

Colonel Shepard, commanding at Montgomery, on the following day issued an order reprimanding the soldiers and the editor of the Advertiser, and saying, "It is the duty of soldiers to abstain from any expression of political opinions as to persons or parties."

Is it there where you are? In 1863 and '64 it was quite commendable for the soldiers to express opinions on political subjects. Now, as the empire advances, it is altogether wrong for the soldier to give his political opinions, unless they happen to be on the Radical side. It is quite plain that the troops on duty in the South have seen enough of the practical workings of Radicalism to disgust them. Before the campaign closes there will be more than one demonstration like that at Montgomery.—Patriot.

—A large number of Israelites in St. Louis, over two thousand, it is said, have pledged themselves to vote against General Grant. This action is mainly, if not wholly, based upon an order issued by Grant during the war banishing all Jews from one of the Southern military departments.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MY DEAR MEYERS:—Are you a believer in American progress? Are you a manifest destiny man? What your opinions were on the foregoing subjects in "times that didn't try men's souls," I confess I can't remember, although tolerably familiar with the views and feelings of the Editor of the BEDFORD GAZETTE.

If you are not a manifest destiny man, it behooves you to swear allegiance to Ulysses, the 1st. According to the Pittsburg Commercial, a paper that never had and never will have an unpaid political opinion, and the Pennsylvania Telegraph, State Guard and Bedford Inquirer, papers that never had a political opinion, that was not paid for: It is "Treason, Stratagem and things" not to swear by Ulysses, the 1st, who never had a political opinion under any circumstances.

We disloyal people are in a terrible situation. It is impossible for us to tell when we may become offensive to Ulyss, old Jessie, the intellectual Aunt, Mrs. Cady Stanton, Anna Dickinson, Esq., and others of the "God and Morality" party, inasmuch as what would be treason one day, may be loyalty the next, and what would be loyalty today, may be treason to-morrow. I have lately discovered, and I claim credit for it, that a three years' soldier can express his honest opinion of Mrs. Lincoln, without being considered disloyal. That is, if his opinion is unfavorable. I remember the time when to do so, was not only dangerous, but positively inconvenient, as the undersigned can testify. That was when Mr. Seward could tinkle his little "bell," and Mr. and Mrs. Abe could receive carriages, horses, jewels, et cetera, in payment for public offices, and if any dissatisfied spirit, any disaffected Copperhead, said one word against it, Mr. Seward's bell tinkled, the blood-stained Gen. Baker's cohorts were rampant, "loil" people were indignant, and the moral sense of the Nation was only appeased, when the disaffected, disloyal, dangerous person was incarcerated in one of those Bastiles that were disgraceful alike to the humanity and civilization of the 19th century.

For the American citizen of the present day, the only safe and popular side is to adopt the Mahometan cry (with a slight variation) God is great and Grant is a Greater. We are told by those who were authority before the war, that the Nation is looking to him!! That the eyes of the civilized world are turned upon us!! (N. B. The eyes of the civilized world must be a little cross-eyed if they have been turned upon us for the last 8 years.) (N. B., No 2. No reference to Gen. B. F. Butler of Massachusetts, the Congressional Manager who conducted the cross (eyed) examination of the witnesses on the Impeachment Trial.) That the great battle of Freedom is just being fought!! That the contest is still raging, and we must keep with the bayonet what we gained by the sword!! &c.

As far as we can see, all we have gained by the sword, was a lot of unprincipled scoundrels who arrogate to themselves the regulation of affairs (Sumner, Stanton, Butler, Grant, Logan & Co.; a debt that there is not money enough in the world to pay; FOUR MILLIONS (4,000,000) of worthless "Niggers," who must be fed and clothed by the laboring men of the North, an a familiarity with despotism and despotic acts that a few years ago would have driv n the American people to phrensy. We have also learned to submit ourselves to such leaders as Thad. Stevens, who in his place, in the House of Representatives of the United States, sneers at the Christian Religion, and openly calls the Savior of Mankind a mere man dan "individual." We, a Christian Nation, sending brawling preachers and insidious tracts, to the enlightened Nations of Europe; sending professed ministers of the Gospel to the heathen, and swindling the well-meaning portion of our people, out of their earnings or their abundance, to send King James' Translation to people who had the True Bible before the existence of America was known.

We have further learned to submit uncomplainingly to a people who sneer at us, jeer at us, and have always made a jest and a virtue of cheating us.—Yes, to our shame be it said, that the descendants of Pennsylvania Baptists and Quakers, whose ancestors were whipped through the streets of Yankee towns at the tail of Yankee carts, followed by a horde of horde-faced, psalm-singing Yankee men and women, casting mud, stones and opprobrious epithets upon them, the liberalism and enlightenment of the Methodist have resolved themselves, in many cases, into a servile imitation of Yankee intolerance, that some of the once proud and respectable Lutherans, claiming to be the true and only Church, now basely consent to follow the lead of Yankee Unitarians, Fourierites, Parkerites and Free-Lovers. If I am correctly informed, they have a Stevens Professorship in Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg, named after that lecherous old scoundrel, Thad. Stevens, who openly avows his infidelity and his contempt for the people who have trusted him and made him rich and famous. It is, indeed, a melancholy and a suggestive fact, that the German element of Pennsylvania, the Lutheran, the Tunker, the Amish or Mennonists, and others, should for years heap favors upon men whose sole recommendation was a blind unreasoning hatred to their own brethren, their own flesh and blood, in the South, and whose every thought, impulse and feeling was directly antagonistic to everything they cherished and held sacred.

You do not remember, but your Grandfather did, when the Thad. Stevensites of Somerset County, refused to hear a member of any society as a witness, to let them sit as jurors; when they, with true Yankee arrogance and boastfulness, forbade their obsequious tools to deal with a merchant, or mechanic, who would not join their unholy crusade. Yes! they even went so far as to denounce those who in death and sickness practiced the usual neighborly acts and offices toward those with whom they had been intimate, but who honestly doubted the wisdom of their acts and refused to join them.

The intolerance of the party who worshipped Abraham Lincoln and tried to force th neighbors to do so, is not without p cedent. In the language of the L , "that reminds me of a little story. I tell it because you know all the parties and because it bears its own moral.

Rev.—— is a leading member of the Pittsburg Conference, a man of fine presence, of fair talents and engaging manner, and it is not at all surprising that in a short time he became one of the marked men in the Methodist E. denomination. Unfortunately for him, like too many o. the brethren, he became a worshipper of the New England Baal, and came to regard hatred of the South as an evidence of Godliness. He preached the new Gospel, in common with his brethren, with general acceptance. When Lincoln was assassinated, he preached him right into Heaven, held him up to his flock as a bright and shining light—though he knew him to be a scoffer and unbeliever.

On one of his rounds as Presiding Elder, he came to the romantic and sequestered little village of Somerset, to hold a meeting. The only marked event was the absence of one who filled a prominent place in the Amen Corner, usually, as well as in the business community. Meeting the brother the day after the meeting, he accosted him in an affectionately rebuking or a rebukingly affectionate manner—"Brother K! Bro. K! I was very sorry to see you were not at Church yesterday. How does that come?"

"Well, I don't think I'll go to church anymore. I guess there's no use in it."

"Why, Bro. K, I am very sorry to hear you talk in that way. What put such notions in your head."

"Well, you see Bro.——, last Sunday, preached that Abraham Lincoln, an unbeliever and disobeyer of the plainest commands of scripture, had gone straight to Paradise. If such as he can go to Heaven from a theatre, there is no fear for the rest of us, and we needn't trouble ourselves about going to meeting."

Phancy the Phelinks of Rev.——.

Radicals Who Support General Grant.

Tilton—He has called Grant a drunkard.

Phillips—He has called Grant a drunkard as "brainless as his saddle."

Sumner—He says Grant is not an "irreversible guarantee," and "made a white-washing report to fortify Andrew Johnson.

Chase—"Grant is a man of vile habits and of one idea."

Anna Dickinson—"I am going to England to get out of advocating this bungler."

Mrs. Stanton—"Grant says nothing, and knows less than nothing."

Wilson—"I will never, so help me God, support any but temperance men for office."

Greeley—"The Presidency requires a man of ideas and a statesman."

Colfax—"I declare in advance no doubtful person shall have my ballot for President."

Kelley—"I will die in my tracks before I will subscribe to this white-washing report of this man (Grant) who has joined his testimony, and will join his fate to that public enemy, (A. JOHNSON.)

Old Thad.—"Never ask me to support a twaddler and trimmer for office.

Geary—"Drunkards, like pirates, are public enemies."

Frelinghuysen.—"The nation owes to its self respect to tolerate imbecility in politics no longer."

Wade—"Grant knows nothing of politics. * * He can talk nothing but horse."

Yates—"I own I have been a drunkard; I will be one no longer, nor will I longer cast my lot with such men."

The Wholesale Cheat.

In seven out of the thirty-one districts in South Corolina which were said to have given ten thousand majority for the bogus constitution, the Democratic gain at the late county elections foots up fourteen thousand. This singular change has excited much comment and is variously ascribed to the ability of whites to control the negro vote, growth of black conservatism, and so forth and so on, all of which, in our poor opinion, is so much bosh. The secret is that at these county elections Congress had nothing particular at stake, and the returns were not, therefore, manipulated to suit. With carpet bag candidates to act as judges of election, and servile tools at head quarters, who would report that two and two made a hundred if so ordered from Washington, the very thought of an election in any of the Southern States is a farce, and it is our firm belief, for which we have good reason, there has not been from the beginning to the end of this reconstruction business one single fair coudt of the ballots. —N. Y. Herald.

WE find the following announcements in the New York World of Saturday:

"We are requested to state for the information of persons desiring tickets of admission to the Democratic National Convention, that applications should not be made to the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, but to the delegates. The tickets have not yet been prepared; but when ready, they will be distributed to delegates from the several States to be bestowed by them on persons of their acquaintance—a method which will give a fair proportion to members of the party from distant parts of the country. Any other mode of distribution would be likely to fill the hall with citizens of New York to the exclusion of persons having equal claims.

—Ben. Butler is to be appointed a special committee whose duty it shall be to strew Stanton's political grave with flowers. This is the more appropriate because Butler sought Stanton's place before Mr. Lincoln had been dead twenty-four hours.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

—The last gap in the railroad connection between California, and Nevada was closed last week by completing the track for the space of six miles, delayed by the snow last winter. The Central Pacific Railroad is now in operation from Sacramento to Reno, near Virginia City, 150 miles, and about July 1, the cars will run to Big Bend, on the Truckee river, Nevada, 187 miles east of Sacramento. The grading is rapidly progressing across the desert of Big Bend to Humboldt Lake. The whole force of laborers will be at once moved upon the line of Salt Lake. This portion of the road can be built as rapidly as that East of the Rocky Mountains. The company is putting forth every exertion to reach Salt Lake before the Union Pacific expects to be there, on the 4th of July 1860.

—An Atlantic Cable dispatch announces the assassination of Prince Michael, the ruling sovereign of Servia, in Europe. The act was committed while the Prince and some of his family were out walking in the streets of Belgrade. He was attacked suddenly by three or four persons, who fired shots at him with a revolver, one of which took effect, killing him instantly. One of the assassins was captured.

—The Roanoke Times says a white female of that county gave birth to a child as black as the ace of spades, one day last week. The father of the girl was a member of the "League," who held meetings at his house. It also speaks of another case in which the wife of a white man was driven off with her black paramour, and thinks there is a Radical defect somewhere.

—A wonderfully formed child, born near Pulaski, Tenn., is now on exhibition in Nashville. Nature has furnished it with four legs, four feet, twenty-one toes, and but one body, being one child, healthy and symmetrical, down to the hips, thence down it is two dstinct, well-developed children, with every organ, bone and muscle that belong to two persons.

—Near Lafayette, Indiana, a few days since, during a violent storm of rain and wind, Mrs. May and her two daughters were passing through a piece of woodland, when a tree was blown down on them, killing the mother and younger child immediately, and seriously injuring the other one.

—The freshet on the James River in Virginia has greatly injured the crops on the lowlands. The army worm has made its appearance in the cotton plants on both sides of the Mississippi, in Louisiana. At Madison, Wis., favorable reports of the growing crops have been received from all parts of the State.

—The young lady boarders at a convent in Bordeaux got hold of some of the naughty songs of the famous Theresa, and when the Mother Superior confiscated them, raised a mutiny and tried to suffocate one of the teachers between two mattresses.

—A gambler's telegraph has been captured in a Montreal den. It is an apparatus on the bell-pull system, by which a confederate looking through a hole in the ceiling, can inform the "scalper" what card the visitor has in his hand.

—The Prussian infantry are being trained to attack railway cars while in motion, to the surprise of travelers, who find their train suddenly boarded by a dozen or more, who go through the manual of arms in the passage and then jump off.

—On the California end of the Pacific railroad they have already cut fifteen tunnels in a distance of 137 miles. These tunnels range from 85 feet in length to 1,652 feet, and the aggregate length of the fifteen is 6,262 feet.

—In Rome, on the 3d inst., the Hon, Buchanan Read gave a grand entertainment to the Hon. Charles Francis Adams and a large party of American residents and visitors.

—Secretary McCulloch has not resigned, nor does he purpose so to do, his relations with the President being represented as of a most amicable and satisfactory character.

—Ex-United States Senator Guthrie, of Kentucky, has resigned the presidency of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, on account of continued ill-health.

—Ira Sherman, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, picked from his strawberry bed, on Monday, (8th,) a berry of the Dr. Nycane (English) variety, full ripe, which measured four inches around. It was raised in the open air.

—California promises to become one of the chief raisin-producing countries in the world. The best grape for the purpose is one of the Malaga variety. Last year a single farm raised 25,000 pounds.

—The Empress Carlotta, in her insane moments, imagines that the royal palace wants cleaning, and she keeps everybody busy with soap and scrub-brushes.

—Russia is not backward in the cause of education. The province of Volhynia contains 1,332 schools for the people, attended by 27, 602 scholars.

—The Chinese embassadors at Washington, spent Sunday in smoking opium quietly in their rooms. Minister Burlingame, being a Christian, rode out in a four-horse carriage.

—38,000 citizens of Arkansas lost their lives in the rebellion.

—Eighty thousand youths attend public schools in Philadelphia.

A "Loil" Delegate: He is Recognized by a Wisconsin Soldier as a Rebel Guerrilla.

The Stevens Point Pinery relates the following interesting personal incident that occurred during the sitting of the Chicago Convention:

Among the "loil" delegates to the late Chicago Convention was a red hot one from Arkansas, between whom and Hon. James S. Young, of this city, a recognition took place, as surprising on one side as it was disagreeable on the other. Mr. Young saw and recognized the ardent "loil" delegate as a former notable guerilla bushwacker, whom Mr. Young had assisted in capturing in Arkansas during the war. The following conversation took place between them:

Mr. Young—You are from Arkansas I believe.

Delegate (pompously)—Yes, sir, I am one of the loyal delegates to the National Republican Convention.

Young—Yes, I thought I knew you. I saw you during the war.

Delegate (alarmed)—Where?

Young—When I was in the Union army you were a rebel prisoner of war; I helped to take you.

The hypocritical advocate of "loil" negro equality stood dumb with amazement for a moment, and then broke through the crowd like a quarter horse for refuge among his Radical confreres where the test of loyalty is lip service and negro equality.

Could a more striking case be presented? Young passed through a long and honorable service in the Union army, and is called a copperhead because he votes against military rule and nigger suffrage. While this rebel bushwacker, who fought us, and now for the sake office and spoils, joins the Radicals and shouts for negro equality, is called not only loyal, but is a delegate to the Radical Convention.

Vive la humbug!

THE CROPS IN ENGLAND.—All the accounts from England speak of the prospect of a large yield of the crops this season in that country. A writer in the Pall Mall Gazettte of the 1st instant says:

The area under grain crops is unusually large, and I have no doubt that coming statistics will show an excess under wheat alone of one hundred thousand acres over that of last year. I have just been over an estate in Lincolnshire which contains seven thousand acres, five-sixths of the tillage area of which are under grain crops, and the remaining one-sixth only under roots and clovers. Excepting on light soils, the yield of artificial grasses will be heavy. The yield of meadow hay will not excee . an average.

"As with corn, so also with stock husbandry, the prospects are singularly cheering. Cattle are unusually free from disease, the clip of wool is heavy, the number of lambs is great, while pastures are luxuriant. Altogether the food produce of 1868, judging from present prospects, promises great abundance."

Grant Medals.

An exchange says: A gentlemen from Illinois informed us the other day that after the Chicago Convention he inquired of one of the principal dealers in Grant medals in Chicago how those tokens were selling. "Well, sir," replied the dealer, himself a Radical, "either General Grant has no friends or they are the —— coldest set of friends I ever saw. These medals don't sell at all. Nobody wants them. You can't give them away. I thought I should be unable to supply the demand, but as you see, I have nearly the whole of my stock on hand, and the probabilities are that I shall continue to have them." Such is Grant's popularity. Has anybody seen a Grant medal, or heard a spontaneous cheer given for him? We pause for a reply.

A GENERAL COUNCIL of the Catholic Church throughout the world is authoritatively announced to take place at Rome during the next ensuing winter. This council, it is stated, will be deliberative in its character, and will be the first General Council of the Catholic Church that has been held since the famous Council of Trent. The object of this Grand Council is said to be political rather than religious. Cardinal Manning, in England, asserts that the Church is to take ground, once for all, against the infidel and revolutionary tendencies of the times, and interpose as a bulwark against anarchy and the dissolution of society.

GEN. GRANT has already kicked the economy plank of the Chicago platform overboard, by writing a letter to the House Committee on Military Affairs recommending a renewal of the increase of thirty-three and one-third per cent. in the pay of army officers. The law allowing this increase expires June 30th. A one-third increase of expenses is a pretty good commencement in the way of "retrenchment" and "economy"—as understood and practiced by Radicals.

MCCLELLAN AND HANCOCK.—Gen. McClellan has written a letter from Europe to General Hancock, stating that he will arrive in this country in August next, and that he will not let his name be used in connection with the presidency. He cordially endorses General H., or any other good man who may be elected at the July convention in opposition to the radical nominations, and will take the stump in their behalf.—Wash. Express.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT,
Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—Of all the juvenile periodicals, DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA is the only one that has really made a distinctive name and place. Its pictures, its games, its puzzles, render it universally popular among the little ones, while its varied and instructive character equally recomends it to the attention of parents and teachers. The series of French lessons, or the music, which is a feature, are alone worth several times the cost of the book. $1.50 yearly. W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR JULY.—The July number of this "Queen of the Monthlies" opens with a beautiful engraving of Abraham and Hagar. Hagar and young Ishmael are admirable—while Sarah's face is a study. The double Fashion Plate of this number—and the variety of other Fashions—cannot fail to please the ladies. The Music is the "Little Birdie's Waltz"—the monthly piece of choice music is a great inducement to take this magazine. The literary matter this month is excellent. The "Lady's Friend" is published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post" $4.00. Sample copies, 15 cents.

"Do not your juries give their verdict" in favor of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative?" On motion of O. E. Shannon, Esq., the Convention proceeded to ballot for candidates.

On the third ballot, D. P. BEEGLE, of St. Clair tp., was nominated for County Commissioner.

On the third ballot, HENRY EGOLF, of Napier tp., was nominated for Poor Director.

On motion, SAMUEL KETTERMAN, of Bedford borough, was unanimously nominated for County Surveyor.

DR. P. H. PENNSYL, of Bloody Run, was unanimously nominated for Coroner.

VALENTINE STECKMAN, of Bedford borough, was nominated, by acclamation, for Auditor.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved, That E. F. Kerr, P. G. Morgart and James Sill be and they are hereby appointed conferees (with power to substitute) to meet similar conferees from the counties of Adams, Franklin, Fulton and Somerset, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Congress, and they are hereby instructed to vote for Hon. B. F. Meyers and use every honorable effort to secure his nomination.

Resolved, That if Mr. Meyers cannot be nominated, the conferees are to use their best judgment in the selection of a candidate.

Resolved, That Peter M. Barton, J. W. Tate and Wm. Keyser be and they are hereby appointed conferees (with power to substitute) to meet similar conferees from the counties of Franklin, Fulton and Somerset, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of Additional Law Judge, and should the Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, of Franklin county, be presented for that position, they are instructed to vote for him and use every honorable effort to secure his nomination.

Resolved, That L. N. Fyan, W. C. Schaeffer and D. A. T. Black, be appointed conferees, (with power to substitute) to meet similar conferees from the counties of Fulton and Somerset, for the purpose of nominating candidates for members of the Legislature, and that they are hereby instructed to vote for, and use every honorable means to secure the nomination of, Capt. Thos. H. Lyons.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the County Committee, hereafter, in his call for the primary elections, designate the committees to hold such elections.

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to revise the rules for the government of the Democratic party of Bedford county, such committee to make report to the County Committee, prior to the issuing of the call for the next County Convention, and the action of the County Committee upon such report to be final.

In accordance with the last resolution, John C. Black, Esq., and Capt. P. G. Morgart, of Bloody Run, Hon. J. G. Hartley, of Snake Spring, Hon. A. J. Snively, of Schellsburg, G. W. Bowser and Andrew Crisman, Esq., of Napier, and George Elder, Esq., of Harrison, were appointed a committee on revision of rules to report to the County Committee.

The following County Committee was then appointed for the ensuing year:

J. W. DICKERSON, Chairman, Bedford Bor.
R W Berkstresser, Secretary, Bedford Bor.
John P Reed, Bedford Bor.
Isaac D Earnest, Bedford Tp.
D Rowland, Broad Top.
Jeremiah Thompson, Bloody Run.

D R P Swaney, Woodbury Bor.

On motion the Convention adjourned sine die.

JAMES BURNS, Pres't.
C. S. FAXON, A. J. SNIVELY, } Secretaries.

STREET PREACHING.—On last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Bishop Gates, (colored), held forth to a "large and enthusiastic audince" in front of the Union School house, on Juliana street. The "extinguished privilege" of hearing the Bishop is not often enjoyed by the good people of Bedford, and hence, without much "previous notice given," the novelty of an out-door sermon attracted quite a large crowd. Two of the "Deacons" passed the hat, and as the "stamps" dropped in, the voice of the "old man eloquent" suddenly rose, and in the midst of a beautiful peroration he exclaimed, "that's right, help the old man along!" And the "congregation" came down liberally. After "renouncing the benediction," the Bishop announced that on next Sunday week, his voice would again be heard "at the usual time and place."

THE STING OF THE LOCUST.—There is a difference of opinion among men who profess to be familiar with the cicada as to whether its sting is poisonous. From the following article published in the Reading Daily Dispatch, it would appear that the sting of this insect is poisonous. On last Wednesday Miss Elizabeth Gambler, residing near the Temple station, on the East Pennsylvania railroad, caught a locust—the first she had seen—and was exhibiting it to her mother, when it stung her in the hand. The sting caused her much pain, and its poisonous effects ran through her whole system, from the effects of which she died on Saturday evening. Miss Gambler was a very amiable young lady of eighteen years of age.

The same paper from which the above is copied contains the following:

"Mrs. Ream, wife of Frederick Ream, residing on Washington street, was yesterday stung in the back of the neck by a locust. The wound immediately commenced swelling, and fears were entertained for Mrs. R's life. The following remedies were applied, and she is now out of danger: A young chicken was killed and gutted, and the flesh applied to the wound. In about an hour the poison was absorbed by the flesh of the chicken, which presented a greenish appearance."

THE new Pension bill, now before Congress, provides that where a pension is granted to the relatives of a deceased person, it shall be paid—first, to the mother; second, to the father; and, thirdly, to the orphan brothers and sisters, who shall be pensioned jointly, if there be more than one. In the case of brothers and sisters, the pension is to cease upon the youngest one's becoming sixteen years of age. In the case of the remarriage of a widow or dependent mother, the pension is to be paid from the death of the husband or son up to the time of the remarriage.

RUNAWAY.—One day last week, a horse attached a to buggy containing John C. Wright and another gentleman, ran away on East Pitt street, throwing out both riders, and traveling at a rate inconsistent with our borough ordinances "in such case made and provided." "Nobody hurt" much, except the buggy which insisted on being in too close proximity to the horse's heels.

NEW STORE ROOM AND NEW STORE.—Fisher & Burns have fitted up a large and commodious store room in the old Postoffice Building, one door west of the Bedford Hotel, where they have just opened and have on exhibition a large and varied assortment of Dry-Goods, Boots and Shoes, Notions, Groceries, &c., &c., which they will sell at the lowest prices. See their advertisment in another column.

A FINE SUMMER.—It is stated as a proved proverb that "when the oak is in leaf before the ash, it is sure to betoken a dry summer." This spring being an illustration of the fact indicates that our present summer will be a fine one; which will be consoling, as having been so near drowning out, it will be a variety to endure a dry up.

LADIES' FASHIONS.—From various Fashion reports we find that a uniform color is the great desideratum now in a stylish costume. A costume complete in one color, and not in one color only, but in one shade of one color, requires genius, patience, judgment, and fine artistic taste.

THE German Reformed congregations of the Huntingdon charge, have tendered Rev. Mr. Heilman, of Bedford county, the pastorship of their several churches.

IT has just been decided by the courts of Pennsylvania that a married woman may not sell stock without her husband's consent, although his signature as a witness on the certificate of transfer has been ruled as evidence of assent.

IN DEMAND—Linen coats, Summer Hats, &c. Berkstresser & Co. have a fine assortment.

DURABLE—The Boots and Shoes sold by Irvine. Ladies should call and examine his stock af Gaiters.

THE new Fee Bill for Justices and constables as passed by the last Legislature, for sale at Inquirer Book Store. Every justice and constable should have one.

IF YOU WANT to enjoy good health, excellent appetites and ruddy complexions, throw open your doors, hoist your windows, and give the pure air a chance to circulate.

RELIGIOUS.—The 2d Quarterly Meeting for Bedford Station will be held on Saturday and Sunday, the 27th and 28th inst. Rev. J. S. Deale, of the Baltimore Conference, and Rev. A. W. Guyer, of Central Pa. Conference, will be in attendance.

B. W. G. REED, Pastor.

JUST ARRIVED.—A large lot of new goods bought at low prices, and to be sold at correspondingly low rates, have just been received at A. L. Defibaugh's. Now is the time for bargains! Come along and look at Defibaugh's stock. See for yourselves and be convinced that it is your interest to make your purchases at his store.

ALL the July magazines including Harper, Atlantic, Galaxy, Lippincott, Eclectic, Godey, Young Folks, Riverside, Frank Leslie, Demorests, &c., for sale at the Inquirer Book Store, on Juliana Street.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of

CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A

CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. Sold by the Druggists and Store keepers. june5m1

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on ANDERSON—At the residence of her son-in-law, in Bedford, on the 18th inst., Mrs. Sarah Anderson, aged 75 years, 9 months, and 8 days.

Our aged mother has at last left us. God, in his Providence, has seen fit to remove her after suffering for several months. During her sickness she was patient, although often expressing a desire to depart. She was born in Frederick County, Virginia, and removed here some 25 years ago. She united with the Church in early youth, and the communion record of the Lutheran Church of this place, of which she was a member, shows how faithful she was in her profession of Christ. She often spoke of Jesus and Heaven. She has been admitted into the presence of the Savior, and has exchanged this home for that above. Having committed herself to him in this life, she now rests from sorrows free, and will abide with her Savior forever. M.

AGENTS WANTED. $75 to $200 per month, everywhere, male and female, to introduce the GENUINE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. This machine will stich, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully waranted for five years. We will pay $1000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stich can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay Agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., PITTSBURGH, PA., or BOSTON, MASS.

Caution.—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast-iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.

HAVE YOU TRIED TOWLE & CO'S NONPAREIL DOLLAR SALE? If you have not now is your time to secure the greatest bargains ever offered by any concern in the world. Investigate this at once—it will pay. All parties in the Dollar Sale business advertise to give the best bargains, best inducements to agents, &c. But the Goods tell the story. The proof of the pudding is the eating. Terms lower than the lowest. Circulars sent free. Address TOWLE & CO., 7 Tremont Row, Boston, Mass.

Proof of our statement that we have made A COMPLETE REVOLUTION IN TRADE, can be found in the fact that the immense business we have built up has induced a multitude of small concerns to imitate our club system, and some by advertising the presents they will give to agents, seek, unsuccessfully, to divert some of our business to themselves. We make this announcement simply to inform the public that it will be for their interest to patronize our house, as we still continue to give better Goods and greater inducements to agents than any other concern in the business.

We sell every description of DRY AND FANCY GOODS, PLATED WARE, JEWELRY, WATCHES, SEWING MACHINES, &c., &c., for the uniform price of ONE DOLLAR Circulars sent to any address free. PARKER & CO., Nos. 98 and 100 Summer St., Boston.

PROSPECTUS.
THE MORNING PATRIOT.
The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.
From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them.
The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.
Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.
As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.
TERMS:
For the Daily, one year in advance.....$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance..... 3 50
Single copies, THREE CENTS.
THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.
It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.
Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.
TERMS:
Single copy, one year.....$2 50

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628
WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"
are the best and Cheapest Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 86 Cents; 25 sgrings, 95 Cents, 30 springs, $1 15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.
"Our Own Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2 00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.
"Our Own Make of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.
To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY and SALESROOM, 728 Arch Street, Between 6th and 7th Sts., Pa.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by
E. M. BRUCE,
18 N. Seventh Street, Philadelphia.
☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. |The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON. Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER
This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.
This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Lessen the dose according to constitution.
Price :—Quart bottles, $1.00; Pint bottles, 50 cents. JACOB L. HOOVER,
